

DrumDial INC. LIMITED WARRANTY

This product is warranted against manufacturing defects in material and workmanship under normal use for one (1) year from the date of purchase. Drumdial will repair or replace without charge any defective part if returned to seller during the warranty period, provided this warranty form and the original dated sales slip accompany the drum tuner when returned. This warranty is void if any defects are caused by mishandling, negligence or damage (not resulting from defect or malfunction), or if any repairs or services have been carried out by other than DrumDial Inc. This warranty gives you specific legal rights. You may have other rights which vary from state to state.
